

Here's what happened in worship this past Sunday.

This week in worship we heard from the gospel of Matthew, in this passage we hear about Jesus and some disciples on a mountain. Suddenly Jesus is transfigured into a shining figure. Then Moses and Elijah appear as well. Finally a voice from heaven declares Jesus God's son of whom He is well pleased. The disciples are amazed and want to keep the heavenly trio there. But Jesus comforts them and leads them down the mountain telling them to keep quiet until after the son of man has been raised from the dead. In the sermon we explored what all this could mean. Why would Jesus want them to keep this quiet? Why did Jesus want them on the mountain? Why was Peter's response so subdued? As we explored we considered how we see God in our lives and how we do respond, and maybe more importantly how should we respond? Watch the sermon now to hear the rest!
